Foreword

A steady increase in the number of customers each year is indeed very gratifying, and that proves that our policy of allowing dealers and fanciers to buy of us at wholesale and less is so well liked that we again continue this policy.

While our prices are second to none, the well grown rhizomes give you added value, and they cost us much more than ordinary rhizomes to produce.

A large, fat, well grown rhizome which we send you is bound to have a lot of stored up energy to grow and do well for you.

Small immature rhizomes dry out too much in shipment, and take a long time to recover and start growing; so you are way ahead in buying of us on account of the two reasons given you above.

All prices are made subject to the stock on hand, and, as we do not belong to any commercial growers' association, you gain thereby and get true value on each variety offered.

We try to select the best of the newer varieties from our proven hybridizers, and add this year to our list about forty new varieties that we had on trial last year.

Our stock is the best we have ever grown, and each season we profit by mistakes in growing from the season before, and we offer well grown stock, that will satisfy you, or your money will be refunded.

We solicit orders from Dealers, Advanced Iris Fanciers, and Hybridizers.

On orders placed with us before July 1st, we will co-operate with you by giving you sensational premiums.

Shortage of labor is again with us, and the part you can do to help out is to accept shipment when ready from June 28th to July 20th; in co-operating with us you gain thereby.

Our Introductions for 1945

Our New Iris Introductions for 1945 are described below, and we think that you will like them.

Mr. Norton originated Rajah Brooke, Mr. Elias Nelson originated Show Girl. Maxwell and Norton originated The Capitol, and Maxwell originated Fashion Plate.

These four new varieties are so unusual, that in introducing them, we feel that we need offer no apologies, as they are different from anything we have grown or seen.
